

Prostate Health Awareness Resource List

Brochures:

- La Detección del Cáncer de Próstata: Una Guía para Hispanos en los Estados Unidos. U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Publication #99-8648; 2006. This 24-page booklet, written in Spanish, provides basic information and helps Hispanic men decide whether screening is the right choice for them. www.cdc.gov/cancer/prostate/prospdf/prostate\_cancer\_spanish.pdf
- Making the Choice: Deciding What to Do About Early Stage Prostate Cancer. Michigan Cancer Consortium. An internationally acclaimed decision aid written in clearly understood language to help men newly diagnosed with early stage prostate cancer make a treatment choice that best fits their needs and lifestyle. Booklets available in English, Spanish and Arabic in hard copy and online. www.prostatecancerdecision.org
- Prostate Cancer Screening: A Decision Guide. U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Publication #99-7342; Fall 2003. This 17-page guide is designed to help a man decide whether screening is right for him by describing the prostate, prostate cancer, and the screening tests in an easy-to-read, question-and-answer format. www.cdc.gov/cancer/prostate/publications/decisionguide/
- Prostate Cancer Screening: A Decision Guide for African Americans. U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Publication #99-7692; October 2003. This informed decision making guide targets African-American men. At all ages, African-American men die of prostate cancer more often than other men do. The reasons for the variation among groups are unknown, making it critical that African-American men know the facts about prostate cancer and the available screening tests.
